Classics

Pina Colada £7.50

The national drink of Puerto Rico and icon of kitsch parties everywhere was created in 1954 at the Caribe Hilton hotel in San Juan by a young bartender called Ramon Marrero. The combination of fresh pineapple with white rum and coconut cream is the quintessential tropical party experience.

Fruit Caipirinha £7.50

The Caipirinha is the signature drink of Brazil, muddling the fresh fruit and earth notes of sugar cane cachaca with raw sugar, fresh limes and other seasonal fruits.

Manhattan £7.50

A product of the Golden Age of Cocktails of the late 1800's and probably the greatest mixed drink in the world, the Manhattan is the first word in sophisticated drinking. American whiskey stirred patiently with sweet vermouth and a few drops of bitters.

Bellini £8.50

Named in honour of the sublime pink hues employed by the artist Jacopo Bellini and echoed in this divine blend of white peaches and sparkling wine.

Vodka or Gin Martini £7.50

The Martini is rightly revered as both 'the only American invention as perfect as the sonnet' (HL Mencken), and 'the USA's most lethal weapon' (Nikita Khrushchev). The simplicity of its recipe of spirit and vermouth is belied by the skill required to achieve the perfect balance between them.

Planters Punch £7.50

Plantation owners of the eighteenth century sought relief from endless humid summers through this delectable concoction of rum, sugar syrup, soda, bitters, and fresh lime juice.

Mojito £7.50

Currently the world's most popular cocktail, this delicate blend of mint, fresh lime, sugar and white rum is the perfect thirst quencher for a hot day. It was originally valued as a health drink in eighteenth century Cuba, hence the name that means 'little potion'.

Tom Collins £7.50

The Tom Collins is essentially a fresh lemonade spiked with London Dry gin and charged with soda. The cocktail authority David Embury called it the 'tallest of tall drinks'.

Classics

Moscow Mule £7.50

This is the drink that launched the global success of the Smirnoff brand, a long and spicy mix of vodka with fresh lime and fiery ginger beer.

Margarita £7.50

The balance of two primary tastes, sweet and sour, creates the perfect platform to set off the complex flavours of quality tequila: dried tropical fruits, wood spices, light smoke, and aromatic teas.

Twisted Classics

Our version of Cocktail Legends spun in a completely wonderful way...

Tom Yum Thai Mary £7.50

A vibrant twisted Bloody Mary from the Andaman Straits. We take fragrant Tom Yum spices, a splash of Tanqueray Rangpur lime-infused Gin and add a unique Vermilion garnish. Savoury heaven!

Bali Banana Colada £7.50

A rich blend of the fruits of Asia and the Caribbean. Appleton VX Jamaican Rum and Pisang Ambon, a liqueur based on a secret Indonesian recipe. Throw in baby bananas, coconut cream and serve it ice-cold in a tiki cup.

Saran Rom £8.50

Named after the Thai royal palace. Fresh Papaya and the subtle spice of galangai roots shaken with Don Julio Blanco tequila, sweetened with agave nectar and champagne.

Coco-Chic £7.50

A subtle exotic martini with a nod to the French influence in the Far East. Ciroc French grape vodka stirred with Pomegranate juice, a hint of coconut liqueur & sweet Chai tea perfumed with a lime twist.

Service charge not included.

Twisted Classics

Panang Punch £7.50

The 'Punch' travelled from the East Indies to the West Indies centuries ago - we return the compliment. The perfect mix of lemon, sugar, rum, juice and bitters with an unmistakable tang of passion fruit.

Minty Malty Mighty Mule £7.50

A really tasty twist on the classic Mule recipe. We swap in Talisker 10yr old, the Isle of Skye single malt, and shake it wildly with fresh mint and ginger beer, citrus and bitters.
